Believers: Gifted with a Goal	Richard Fleming	FH, Rooms 204-205
In a symphony orchestra every person has a special part to play. Each person has an instrument to play their part for the overall good of the musical presentation. In other words, each musician is gifted with a goal . Like a symphony orchestra, the church (body of Christ) consists of believers who have a special part to play. Each believer doesn’t have an instrument but a gift, spiritual gift(s) to exercise for the common good of the body of Christ. No believer is gift-less but instead gifted with a goal. Therefore, if you are a believer, no matter what you think or feel, no matter what your past is, or any distinctive, you are gifted, gifted with a goal . If you desire to know how you are gifted with a goal and how God has given you a strategic part to play in the church, the body of Christ, this course is for you. During this ten-week series on Spiritual Gifts, there are two approaches that will be taken, The first is a GENERAL approach helping you to recognize the importance of not being ignorant of spiritual gifts and the imperative to use your spiritual gifts as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. The second is a SPECIFIC approach helping you to personalize as you consider how God has gifted you.
